May 19, 20, 21, 2023

Organized and presented by the 2023 Linn County Lamb and Wool Fair Association
P.O. Box 373 Scio, Oregon 97374

Welcome to the Fair

Welcome to our 88th Linn County Lamb & Wool Fair in Scio, Oregon. This Fair is for families and friends to come together and support our community while having fun. It raises funds for non-profits, individual scholarships and educational programs along with supporting many local businesses and vendors who help keep our tradition alive and growing.

When this year's theme and logo was presented to us by Evon Slover, "Counting on Ewe to Join Us", it really spoke to how the Linn County Lamb and Wool Fair Association is Counting on YOU! We are so grateful for the amazing volunteers that step up every year to put this Fair together with over 29 activities. We could not survive without you and are always looking for more volunteers. We are blessed each year by the organizations that sponsor our events and make donations to improve our facilities and offer items so we can raise funds. We are "Counting on Ewe to Join Us" and Support Us. We hope you will join our Facebook page, check out our website, and visit us in person each day to enjoy your Fair.

Scio Saturday Market 9am-1pm

The Scio Saturday Market kicks off its third season of celebrating community by bringing people together while showcasing local farms, artists and small businesses alike. The Scio Saturday Market is a weekly event that runs nearly every Saturday from May 27th - October 7th 9am-1pm. This rural market was created by local women who are committed to supporting the Scio community by creating a place for smaller farmers and crafters to sell their locally grown fruits, vegetables, honey, flowers and handcrafted goods. The Scio Saturday Market is not limited to sales. At the market you'll find FREE weekly entertainment including music, demonstrations, children's story time (3rd Saturday of every month), local storytellers, hands on crafts and more. The Scio area is rich in agriculture, history, creativity and community. Finally, there is a market to host the sharing of these gifts for all to enjoy. Mark your calendars and like the Scio Saturday Market on Facebook to stay connected to all the fun, fresh food and buy local opportunities that support your neighbors, community and local economy. The Scio Saturday Market invites you to bring the whole family and join in the celebration of community. Still accepting 2023 vendors and entertainment. Applications available on Scio Saturday Market Facebook page and at www.sciosaturdaymarket.com

Introducing Our Honored Citizen, Ida Ruby

Ida Ruby moved to Scio from West Linn, OR in 1966 when she married local dairy farmer Ray Ruby. The farm lifestyle came easy to Ida, as she was the second of four children born to Swiss dairy farmers Rudolph and Esther Luscher, who owned and operated a prominent registered Holstein herd in West Linn. She and Ray met while Ida was driving her father to a Holstein Association activity. At the time, she was working in the office of a large furniture manufacturing firm in Portland, but her fate as a third-generation dairy farmer was set, and Fir-Ridge Holstein Farm has been going strong ever since. The husband-and-wife team grew their dairy business together over the next 45 years, and Ida and her family have kept the farm going since Ray passed in 2010.

Soon after Ida moved to Scio she started working full-time at the local bank, milking cows before and after work. Throughout Ida's banking career she won numerous statewide banking achievement awards for her work in setting up investment plans for people in the community. This was quite a feat coming from Scio's rural population, up against the investment portfolios of her colleagues in the Portland metropolitan area. After a 30-year career at the bank, she retired in the mid-90's, but would continue to apply her financial skills to many other areas of her life, including starting and growing scholarship programs and serving as a treasurer for several non-profit organizations. She has worked closely with the Scio Scholarship Foundation, Linn-Benton Dairy Women, Oregon Dairy Women, Oregon Holstein Association, Holstein Women's Scholarship program, and she still manages all financial aspects of Fir-Ridge Holstein Farm to this day. While Ida worked full-time in her banking career, her heart was in her family and their growing dairy farm. Her two children, Scott and Michele, both graduated from Scio High School and after living in other parts of the country have returned to Scio. Ida's greatest joy is in her nine grandchildren.

Ida has been recognized for her achievements with the OSU Diamond Pioneer Award, Holstein Association USA National Distinguished Leader Award, Oregon Dairy Women Appreciation Award, Oregon Dairy Farmers Association Community Service Award, Scio FFA Honorary Chapter Farmer Degree, and Oregon FFA Honorary State Farmer Degree to name a few.

Scio's Historical ZCBI Hall

In the Spring of 1920, the Western Czech Brotherhood had raised enough funds to build a new lodge in Scio. This was about the same time that Bohemia and Slovakia merged to form the new country of Czechoslovakia in the northwestern corner of the old Austro-Hungarian Empire that had crumbled during World War I.

Many of Scio's early settlers were of Czech ancestry and had come to America to escape the repressions of the Austro-Hungarian Empire. The brotherhood formed by the Czech settlers was much like the Grange formed by the English settlers, using their halls for social events and as a life insurance cooperative. The name of the brotherhood in Czech is: Zapadni Cesko Bratrská Jednota (ZCBI) which translates to Western Czechoslovakian Fraternal Association.

After the completion of the Scio lodge in 1922, it quickly became the center off social activities in town. Polka dances were held on Saturday nights, drawing many people from miles around. Community companionship was enjoyed at the many potlucks and dinners featuring Czech dumplings, sausages and kolaches. The Hall could even be transformed into a gymnasium fir use by area children who attended i\organized gymnastics and competitions. The ZCBI continued their lodge meetings and community activities until 1993, when, because of dwindling numbers and ever-increasing age of members, they deeded their hall to the Linn County Lamb and Wool Fair Association with the requirement that the hall would continue to be used as a community center.

Today The Hall is used for myriad of functions including, weddings, receptions, anniversaries, memorials, banquets, meetings, exercise classes, fundraisers, concerts, plays, auctions, flea markets, reunions, luncheons, and parties. If you would like to rent the ZCBI Hall for your event or for more information about the Hall, visit us on the web at www.zhall.org and on Facebook at Scio ZCBI Hall.
